Prelude - Ode to Joy

Welcome

Call To Worship Revelation 1:5-6; 17-18

To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, and has made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever... Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last. I am He who lives, and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of Death.

Hymn 277* Christ the Lord is Risen Today (v. 1-5)

Invocation*

Pastoral Greeting and Congregational Response*

Minister: Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise. Hallelujah, Christ is risen!

All: He is risen indeed! Amen!

Hymn 265* Come, Ye Faithful Raise the Strain

Old Testament Reading Job 19:23-27

Oh, that my words were written! Oh, that they were inscribed in a book! That they were engraved on a rock with an iron pen and lead, forever! For I know that my Redeemer lives, and He shall stand at last on the earth; and after my skin is destroyed, this I know, that in my flesh I shall see God, Whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not another. How my heart yearns within me!

Gospel Reading Luke 24:1-7

Now on the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they, and certain other women with them, came to the tomb bringing the spices which they had prepared. But they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. Then they went in and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. And it happened, as they were greatly perplexed about this, that behold, two men stood by them in shining garments. Then, as they were afraid and bowed their faces to the earth, they said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen! Remember how He spoke to you when He was still in Galilee, saying, 'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.'"

The New Testament Reading I Corinthians 15:20-28

But now Christ is risen from the dead, and has become the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since by man came death, by Man also came the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ all shall be made alive. But each one in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, afterward those who are Christ's at His coming. Then comes the end, when He delivers the kingdom to God the Father, when He puts an end to all rule and all authority and power. For He must reign till He has put all enemies under His feet. The last enemy that will be destroyed is death. For "He has put all things under His feet." But when He says "all things are put under Him," it is evident that He who put all things under Him is excepted. Now when all things are made subject to Him, then the Son Himself will also be subject to Him who put all things under Him, that God may be all in all.

Our Traditional Worship

Northwoods believes that a traditional worship service reflects the reverence suggested by Scripture. You will notice that we differ from many evangelical churches who practice a contemporary form of worship, because of our simple accompaniment and use of the historic hymns of the faith. We believe that "worship" includes the entire service, not just the music, and therefore we distribute our hymns of praise throughout the service. May God bless us as we worship Him together.

Missionary Updates

Mission and Ministry Focus:

Missionaries:

Mel and Martha Pike

Kiev, Ukraine

Prayer Request:

1. Martha has left knee surgery scheduled for some time in May. This will make it impossible for us to attend a month of pre-field training held in Brussels, Belgium in June/July. Pray for wisdom about how to get to Ukraine this summer while working on our pre-field training.
2. Pray for wisdom as we discuss with the Ukraine team where we will live in Kiev and how Martha will study Russian her first year in Ukraine.
3. Pray for full funding by July".

Dan and Becky Young

Texas/Northern Mexico border

Our missionaries, Dan and Becky Young, serve with Mission to the World/Northern Mexico Team on the border, working with the Center for Church Planting (CPI in Spanish) in Monterrey. They joined this team in 2012 after working in MTW border ministry (formerly BEAMM) in Juarez and El Paso, with San Pablo Seminary, and with PCA short-term missions teams since 1990.

In December of 2009 they moved to McAllen, Texas, and Dan became director of efforts in the eastern region of the border. Now he leads the CPI's Inter-Border Network for Church Planting and Revitalization, ranging from Laredo, Texas/Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, to the Rio Grande Valley. He collaborates with both the National Presbyterian Church of Mexico and the PCA.

Dan helps train and mentor pastors and ministry leaders and leads the CPI border team. Becky works with him in discipleship and mentoring. Please pray with the Youngs that God will build gospel-centered churches in a multiplying movement, transforming lives and communities along the border. (mtw.org)

Dan writes to thank Northwoods for its faithful support over the years. If you wish to know more about the Youngs including email addresses, pick up a newsletter on the table in the foyer.
