ORDER OF WORSHIP

Call to Worship Nehemiah 9:5

Stand up and bless the Lord your God forever and ever! Blessed be Your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise!

Hymn 15* Stand Up and Bless the Lord

Invocation***

Psalter Reading Psalm 78:1-8

Give ear, O my people, to my law. Incline your ears to the words of my mouth. I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old, which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of the Lord, and His strength and His wonderful works that He has done. For He established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which He commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children; that the generation to come might know them, the children who would be born, that they may arise and declare them to their children, that they may set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments; and may not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that did not set its heart aright, and whose spirit was not faithful to God.

Confession of Sins

Promise of the Gospel John 14:1-3

Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also.

Our Traditional Worship

Northwoods believes that a traditional worship service reflects the reverence suggested by Scripture. You will notice that we differ from many evangelical churches who practice a contemporary form of worship, because of our simple accompaniment and use of the historic hymns of the faith. We believe that "worship" includes the entire service, not just the music, and therefore we distribute our hymns of praise throughout the service. May God bless us as we worship Him together.

Missionary Focus

Coby and Pamela McGinty
Mission to The World Missionaries at the University of Capetown, South Africa
Children: Calla, Lake, and Liam

Coby and Pamela minister with the Student Y, a Reformed student ministry at the University of Cape Town, South Africa. In 2007, after 18 years in the business world, God called them into international missions. Their role at this world-renowned university of over 28,000 diverse students from more than 100 nations combines their passion for student ministry and their love of Africa. Coby and Pamela met while at university and understand the importance of this pivotal time in the hearts and minds of students. They minister through teaching Bible studies and practical life skills, evangelism, discipleship, counselling, mercy ministry, and opening their home to students. The heart of their ministry is “teaching students to follow Jesus for life” and their goal is to serve God by ministering to each student’s spiritual, intellectual, emotional, and physical needs. The University of Cape Town is ranked number one among universities on the continent of Africa. These top students of business, law, medicine, government, engineering, education, and more are all future leaders. By impacting students’ lives for Christ, this ministry is impacting the future of the African continent and beyond as these students take the gospel home to their families, communities, tribes and nations.

Prayer Needs:

- For Calla and Lake, studying at Covenant College
- For Liam, who has struggled with migraine
- For the McGinty’s home church in South Africa, celebrating “REACH 500”-an evangelistic effort celebrating the 500th anniversary of the Reformation
- For safety: they have experienced a break in and robbery
- For peace as there is substantial civil unrest, societal discord, crime and continued demands for social justice in a post-apartheid South Africa
