ORDER OF WORSHIP

Call to Worship Psalm 73:25-28

Whom have I in heaven but You? And there is none upon earth that I desire besides You. My flesh and my heart fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. For indeed, those who are far from You shall perish; You have destroyed all those who desert You for harlotry. But it is good for me to draw near to God; I have put my trust in the Lord GOD, that I may declare all Your works.

Our Traditional Worship

Northwoods believes that a traditional worship service reflects the reverence suggested by Scripture. You will notice that we differ from many evangelical churches who practice a contemporary form of worship, because of our simple accompaniment and use of the historic hymns of the faith. We believe that "worship" includes the entire service, not just the music, and therefore we distribute our hymns of praise throughout the service. May God bless us as we worship Him together.

Announcements

Hospitality Home – If you are visiting with us today or if you traveled far and would like to stay for evening worship, we have a lunch and time of fellowship right after worship. See the back of the worship folder for the location. Please join us.

Reformation Conference – At our conference this year (October 6&7), we will celebrate and commemorate the official five-hundredth anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. As you know, the reformers basic theological principles developed in response to errors in the Church of the day are commonly summarized by 5 Latin phrases known as solas. Our speaker, Dr. VanDrunen, will focus on Soli Deo Gloria. He says “Soli Deo Gloria can be understood as the glue that holds the other solas in place, or the center that draws the other solas into a grand unified whole.” This sola is no ordinary slogan. These three little words declare God’s purpose and man’s chief aim. <http://conference.wyreformed.org>

Signup for hospitality ministry – There are new sheets available for families to sign-up to host hospitality in the foyer. This is an opportunity for us to welcome new families into our homes to get to know one another better. It is also an opportunity for us to love on our fellow church members that travel far to worship with us. Please feel free to use the fellowship hall downstairs if you do not feel your home can accommodate this ministry. All you need to do is prepare a meal and invite visitors and friends to join you!

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Call to Worship

Psalm 34:1-3

I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make its boast in the Lord; The humble shall hear of it and be glad. Oh, magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together. I sought the Lord, and He heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. They looked to Him and were radiant, and their faces were not ashamed. This poor man cried out, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles. The angel of the Lord encamps all around those who fear Him, and delivers them.

Missionary Focus:

Harvest Reformed Presbyterian Church, Gillette
Pastor Caleb Nelson

From their website: “We are a Bible-preaching and teaching church committed to the historic Reformed faith and the sufficiency of Scripture. The church exists for worship and witness, and it does both these things by making use of the ordinary means of grace that Christ has given to feed His sheep. Word and sacrament, feeding people with knowledge and understanding, what man is to believe concerning God and what duty God requires of man: this is what Harvest Reformed Presbyterian Church is all about.”

Many members of Northwoods know that God has been very gracious to us over the years, and enabled our church to do a small part in encouraging and assisting mission works throughout the Presbytery. While a number of these small works have closed their doors, we are overjoyed to report that God has richly blessed the work in Gillette in numerous ways. The mission began a number of years ago, and Pastor Norgauer has been privileged to preach in Gillette on a number of occasions and has come to know the congregation very well. After the departure of the previous pastor, the Lord called Pastor Caleb Nelson to Gillette in early 2016. Pastor Nelson was ordained a minister of Word and Sacrament by the Rocky Mountain Presbytery of the PCA, and then installed as pastor of Harvest Reformed Presbyterian, Gillette. As the Lord graciously blessed the church with sufficient members as well as two fine ruling elders (including Clint Beaver), Harvest was organized as a particular church in the Fall of 2016. Pastor Norgauer was privileged to serve as chairman of the installation commission as well as the church organization commission, both in 2016, and our ruling elders Brian Church and Tim Anderson each ably served on these commissions on behalf of the Presbytery. Pastor Caleb hails from Northern Colorado (Windsor area) and is blessed to have been raised by a large family of Reformed believers who together rejoice in the grace and mercy of Jesus Christ. Caleb married Alexa in 2015 and in 2016 they welcomed their first children-twins! Caleb brings to the church a great love for the Lord, a deep commitment to the authority of the Word of God and the Reformed Confessions, a passion for biblical preaching, and a seriousness about gospel witness. The church just recently informed our session that the Lord has provided so richly for them that they no longer need the financial support that Northwoods has long provided. We have so many reasons to give thanks!
