

Quarterly Diaconal Newsletter Northwoods Presbyterian Church September 2025

But do not forget to do good and to share, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.
Hebrews 13:16 NKJV

Welcoming our newest deacon, Josh Hedum

We are praising God for Josh Hedum's ordination as deacon at Northwoods on September 7, 2025, an exciting day in the life of our church. As determined in the Tuesday, September 9 deacon's meeting, Josh will take point on facility needs, while Jon Chapman will lead administrative, budget, and logistical planning. All deacons (Josh, Jon, and Dale Vosler) will share responsibility for benevolence support.

Service Saturday – September 27

A Service Saturday was held on Saturday, September 27, supporting Argelis McIntire by completing various projects around her home. Many hands made light work, and we were blessed by the eleven volunteers who came out to lend a hand. Please keep an eye out for our next Service Saturday, later this year!

Current Opportunities to Serve in the Church

Please reach out to one of our deacons if you'd like to serve in any of the listed opportunities.

- Church website updates and maintenance
- Running sound and webcast during sermons; preparing sermon audio files for posting online

Opportunities to Serve in the Community

Do you have a ministry in our community that you feel called to lead or support? Please reach out to the deacons to discuss if and how the church could support you in this effort.

By the numbers (2025 to date):

Benevolence spend: $2,175.94

Deacon's fund current balance (9/25/2025): $11,500.03
